Project

BELGRADE, THREE JOURNEYS

In the summer and autumn of 2017 I visited Belgrade, an Eastern European city that had been unknown to me. I found myself drawn to the nuances of the people making their way through their daily lives. Photographing the interplay of these people as modern and traditional, east and west, hope and despair seemed to clash on a daily basis.

When I'm back
I will tell you about it
